"DOING THE PLAY"

Whether it's a relationship with our partner(s), our friends, our families, or perhaps most importantly our relationship with ourselves... There's no doubt that relationships take a lot of work.

What if "doing the work" wasn't the only way? What if we tried "doing the play" instead?

Play relieves stress, improves brain function, boosts creativity, builds resilience and trust, can help heal emotional wounds, and it's even kinda fun!

Relationship Recess is an invitation and an opportunity to come together in a supportive community to explore how play can open minds, inspire authenticity, strengthen both romantic and platonic bonds, and deepen our connection to ourselves.

Relationship Recess is a platonic and sober weekend extravaganza full of dynamic games and activities, delicious food, and human connection all happening at a wild waterfront oasis that's sure to unleash your inner child!

"We're working on our relationship..."

"I'm working on myself..."

"I'm doing the work..."

A House Like None Other!

CHOOSING GREAT ESCAPE LAKESIDE

The crazy game-themed property initially grabbed our attention as a great location for a retreat focused around play and then working with the owners and their incredible team sealed the deal for us!

While deciding whether or not to go with Great Escape we reached out and shared that our group has many LGBTQIA+ members and that we wanted to ensure everyone would feel welcome and safe on the property and around the area.

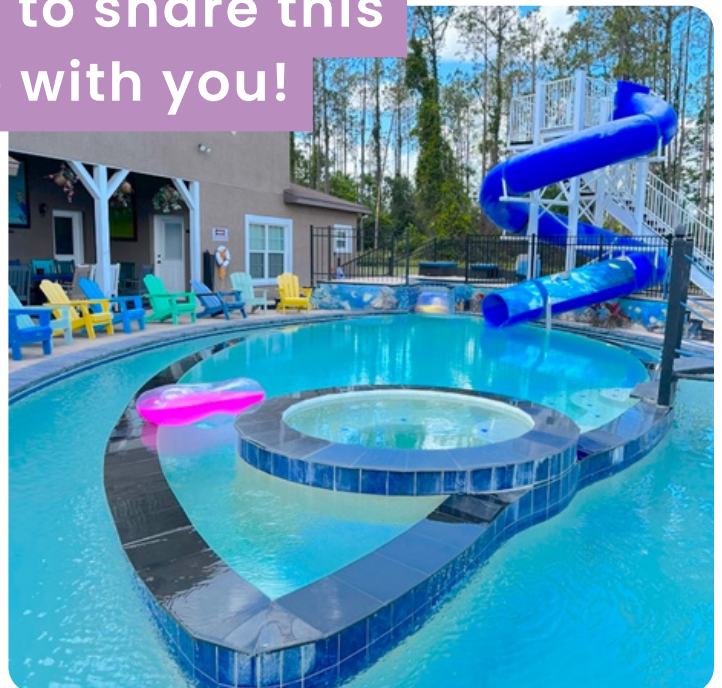

The owner quickly responded with the following email (shared with his permission):

“There’s no reason to feel unsafe at our home (which you’ll be alone at anyway) or anywhere in our community... I’m personally the proud parent of an adult trans son and an adult lesbian daughter who grew up happily about 5 minutes away from where you’re staying and they resoundingly agree with my sentiment.”

Similarly, when we followed up with a full description of our podcasts, work, and what the event is going to be... He responded nonchalantly: “Cool. Thanks for all the great info!”

We're excited to have found such a fabulous venue and we've been really impressed by the fantastic team who runs it.

We can't wait to share this adventure with you!

FAQ CONTINUED

If I stay on-site, can I lock my room from the outside like at a hotel?

The bedroom doors lock from the inside but not from the outside. We've taken some extra precautions for your comfort outlined below. If you are someone who needs the security of a door that you can lock from the outside, you may be more comfortable staying off-site.

- The house has a keypad lock that will only be accessible to overnight guests.
- There will be a volunteer or host in the house at all times throughout the weekend.
- On-site guests will have a unique color-coded wristband.
- Each bedroom will have a photo(s) of the guest(s) staying in the room taped to the door.
- There will be a few security cameras monitoring the two main common areas of the home: The upstairs arcade and the downstairs living space/kitchen.

Are there quiet hours for folks staying on-site?

Yep! Quiet hours are from Midnight to 9am. However, the house will still likely not be as quiet as a private hotel room. If you are a sensitive sleeper you may want to bring earplugs or stay off-site.

Is Relationship Recess ADA friendly/accessible?

Most of the organized activities, games, etc are taking place on the first floor of the house or outside and all of the meals will be served outside under a tent.

We have taken steps to make the event and venue more inclusive and accessible and we know we have likely missed some things...

We invite you to reach out to us with specific questions, needs, and concerns. We would love to work with you to see what accommodations are possible to make Relationship Recess more accessible and enjoyable for you.

Are pets allowed?

Service animals are welcome at Relationship Recess but we ask that you leave your pets and support animals at home.

Are payment plans available?

Payment plans are available if paying for your ticket all at once would be a hardship. We do not charge interest or extra for needing a payment plan. More information will be available when tickets go on sale. Please reach out to us if you have any questions before then.
